Class III Division 2

Easily ignitable fibers are stored or handled, other than in the process of manufacture.

Class III hazardous locations contain easily ignitable fibers or flyings, but the concentration of these fibers or flyings are not suspended in the air in such quantities that would produce ignitable mixtures.

Class III locations are subdivided into two divisions.

Class III, Division 2:

Easily ignitable fibers are stored or handled, other than in the process of manufacture.